

RESOLUTION

In Support of a Right to Counsel for Low-income New Yorkers

Who Face Losing their Homes in Legal Proceedings

WHEREAS, a substantial number of people facing eviction and foreclosure proceedings live in poverty, are not able to afford or obtain counsel to represent them, and must appear in court unrepresented, and

WHEREAS, eviction and foreclosure proceedings are technical legal proceedings in which lawyers generally appear for the petitioners and the rules of evidence and procedural and substantive law all apply; they are consequently very difficult for unrepresented parties to navigate, and

WHEREAS, representation by counsel in eviction and foreclosure proceedings keeps people in their homes and communities and out of the homeless shelters, and provides fundamental fairness and due process for those who face losing their homes, and

WHEREAS, the consequences of eviction and foreclosure are dire for low income people: there is a deficit of affordable housing, and low-income families and individuals who lose their homes in legal proceedings often end up in homeless shelters or in housing that is less affordable than the housing they must leave; and they suffer from loss of employment, missed schooling and damage to physical and mental health, and

WHEREAS, these dire consequences for those who lose their homes in turn result in huge costs to the City of New York in providing shelter, social services and other services, and

WHEREAS, Intro 214, which would create a right to counsel in eviction and foreclosure proceedings, is currently pending at the City Council and is co-sponsored by 38 of the 51 Councilmembers.

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED THAT, the Chelsea Reform Democratic Club supports the right to counsel for low-income New Yorkers who face losing their homes in legal proceedings and urges the City Council and the Mayor to adopt Intro 214 or any other measure that would guarantee the right to counsel for low-income New Yorkers who face losing their homes in legal proceedings.
